“We’ve always done it this way” – Ms. Anita looks at the calendar and sighs. The fall and winter holidays are approaching. She gets her “holiday box” out of the closet and takes an inventory of what is available. There are black cats, ghosts, witches, and jack-o-lanterns for Halloween, pumpkins, turkeys, pilgrims, and Indians for Thanksgiving, and Christmas trees, ornaments, snowflakes, and Santa Clauses for Christmas. Ms. Anita smiles, knowing that she is ready for fall and winter holiday celebrations.

“Holiday tourists” – Mr. Jamal thinks that celebrating holidays is a great way to teach children about other cultures. The children in his group celebrate multiple holidays every month as they learn about holiday foods, dress, and holiday traditions of families around the world.

“Celebrate meaningful holidays” – Ms. Taispends a lot of time getting to know the children in her care and their families. She frequently talks with families to learn what holidays are celebrated in their homes. Holidays, which are important to the children and their families, are celebrated by asking families to come and share their holiday traditions with all of the children in Ms. Tai’s room.

“Holiday elimination” – Mr. Kadin knows that the children in his group represent many backgrounds, cultures, and religions. He decides that eliminating all holiday celebrations gives equal treatment to all children and avoids offending children and families.

Holiday Celebrations: What's Your Plan?

Making a plan for holiday celebrations takes careful thought about the children's level of development, approaches to learning, and unconscious messages that can be shared. Children under age eight have not developed a strong understanding of time. While adults may take weeks to make holiday preparations, the sustained excitement leading up to a holiday can be difficult and overwhelming for young children.

Limiting holiday observances to one or two days gives children a refuge from the holiday hype going on around them.

Children's interests and developmental needs continue in spite of holidays. If the children are interested in insects and trucks, why set aside their interests to focus on a holiday?

Are you thinking of holiday-themed "art" projects? Many holiday art projects are actually crafts where children make a holiday item to take home. Developmentally, children benefit most from open-ended art that focuses on the process of exploration of materials or methods, instead of making holiday crafts where children create an ornament, menorah, or other take-home holiday item.

Holidays are not everyday happenings. Using holidays alone to teach about other cultures is called the "tourist approach" to learning about other people and countries. Learning about other cultures based solely on holiday celebrations often gives a false picture of other cultures to young children. What would a young child from India learn about the American culture if her classroom only talked about Fourth of July celebrations? Clearly the American culture is more than the flag-waving, parades, fireworks, and eating hot dogs that happens on July fourth.

Many holiday celebrations are filled with subtle or not-so-subtle commercial messages that encourage families to buy, buy, buy. Retailers want consumers to believe that no holiday celebration is complete without purchasing special clothing, holiday-specific foods, and presents. What messages are given to children when they are asked, "What do you want for (name the holiday)?" Many children live in low-income households. These families often live from paycheck to paycheck, with little extra money to spend each month. Is it fair or kind to encourage children to develop a holiday list of wants when their families may have difficulty meeting daily needs?

When Christmas celebrations include Santa Claus, children are often asked if they have been "good boys and girls this year." The underlying idea is that Santa will bring presents to "good" boys and girls. What happens in families that can't afford to buy the presents on a child's wish list? From a child's perspective, a lack of presents means the child was "bad" so Santa didn't come.

Orange and black, the traditional colors of Halloween, seem harmless until one considers the scary images of witches in black costumes, black steaming kettles, and dark moonless nights. What message do the negative images of the color black give to children who have dark skin and children who are sometimes called "black"?

Many holiday celebrations are filled with traditions that may seem innocent to adults, but have negative effects on children. Does the thought of Thanksgiving bring to mind a special time for family and friends to gather around a feast of traditional foods? Most Native Americans whose ancestors suffered when the Pilgrims arrived in this country don't share the happy Thanksgiving image.

Holiday Celebrations

Before planning to celebrate a holiday, consider why children should learn about a particular holiday and whether the holiday is developmentally appropriate for young children. Meaningful holiday celebrations for children should be respectful of the values, wishes, and beliefs of all families in the group. Holiday activities should help children feel valued for who they are and what they do at home with their families. Children, not the holiday, should be the priority.

If children celebrate holidays differently, use that information to build on knowledge of each other. A friend celebrates different holidays or the same holiday in a different way, and that person is still a friend. Being different doesn't make one friend better or worse than another friend.

Avoid days and weeks of build-up prior to a holiday. Children will experience enough holiday hype at home and in the community. The comfort of a daily routine and everyday play will be a welcome refuge to young children who don't understand the concept of time and waiting. Avoid the commercial aspects of holidays and focus instead on meaningful ways to celebrate holidays without spending money.

Observing holidays with young children can be times of learning and acceptance of friends who are different or the same, or holidays can be confusing, hurtful, and exclusive. What's your plan for the holidays?

make healthier holiday choices

10 tips for a healthier holiday

The holidays are often filled with time-honored traditions that include some of our favorite meals and foods. As you celebrate, think of little changes you can make this holiday season to create healthier meals and active days.

1 create MyPlate makeovers

Makeover your favorite holiday dishes. Use My Recipe on SuperTracker to improve holiday recipes and get healthier results. Go to <https://www.supertracker.usda.gov/myrecipe.aspx>.

6 tweak the sweet

For dessert, try baked apples with cinnamon and a sprinkle of sugar instead of apple pie. Invite your guests to make their own parfait with colorful sliced fruit and low-fat yogurt.

2 enjoy all the food groups at your celebration

Prepare whole-grain crackers with hummus as an appetizer; add unsalted nuts and black beans to a green-leaf salad; use low-fat milk instead of heavy cream in your casseroles. Share healthier options during your holiday meal.

7 be the life of the party

Laugh, mingle, dance, and play games. Focus on fun and enjoy the company of others.

8 make exercise a part of the fun

Make being active part of your holiday tradition. Have fun walking and talking with family and friends after a holiday meal. Give gifts that encourage others to practice healthy habits such as workout DVDs, running shoes, and reusable water bottles.

3 make sure your protein is lean

Turkey; roast beef; fresh ham; beans; and some types of fish, such as cod or flounder, are lean protein choices. When serving meats, trim away any fat before cooking. Go easy on the sauces and gravies—they can be high in saturated fat and sodium.

4 cheers to good health

Quench your thirst with low-calorie options. Drink water with lemon or lime slices. Offer seltzer water with a splash of 100% fruit juice.

9 enjoy leftovers

Create delicious new meals with your leftovers. Add turkey to soups or salads. Use extra veggies in omelets, sandwiches, or stews. The possibilities are endless!

5 bake healthier

Use recipes with unsweetened applesauce or mashed ripe bananas instead of butter. Try cutting the amount of sugar listed in recipes in half. Use spices to add flavor such as cinnamon, allspice, or nutmeg instead of salt.

10 give to others

Spend time providing foods or preparing meals for those who may need a little help. Give food to a local food bank or volunteer to serve meals at a shelter during the holiday season.

Training Guidelines

Reminders About PATCH Training Attendance

Thank you for your diligence as a child care professional and your dedication to your on-going training and development.

When attending PATCH training classes there are a few guidelines to remember:

Sign Up for Classes Ahead of Time: Remember to sign up for PATCH classes in advance by calling your local PATCH office. To register for a class you must pay a $5.00 refundable deposit to PATCH at least three calendar days before the class. Your $5.00 deposit will be returned upon attendance or can be applied to a future class.

Remember to sign in: You will not receive a certificate for a training class if your name does not appear on the sign-in sheet. Please check all your information on the sign-in sheet. Print clearly when correcting errors in your name, address, or telephone number.

Be on time: If you arrive more than 15 minutes late, you will not be allowed to sign in. If you are unable to stay for the full duration of the training, you will not receive a training certificate. In both of these circumstances, your attendance will not be posted in the database for that class. Likewise, if a trainer is more than 15 minutes late—you may assume that the class has been cancelled due to unforeseen circumstances. We will call you to reschedule the class.

Turn off your cell phone: As a courtesy to the other participants, please turn off the volume of your cell phone or pager.

Adults only please: We love children too, but as a courtesy to other participants, we ask you to make alternative arrangements for child care.

Bring your Record of Training: Please bring your Record of Training (available via the PATCH office) to each class and remember to get the PATCH instructor's signature after each class. When you have completed an entire series, please return the original Record of Training to the PATCH office and we will mail you a Certificate of Completion for the series.

Keep good records: Whether you take a PATCH class or any other training, you should keep track of the trainings you attend for future reference. If you need verification of your PATCH classes, there is a $2.00 fee for a computer printout list of classes taken at PATCH. If you have misplaced your Record of Training sheet, there is a $3.00 fee for a replacement. Duplicate certificates are available for $1.00 each. Please keep in mind that PATCH often deletes information more than 5 years old to make room for the following year.

PATCH strives to coordinate its Training Program (and other programs) to fit the needs of Hawaii's child care professionals. If you have comments or suggestions, please contact your local PATCH office or email us at Patch@PatchHawaii.org.

Maui County News

By Jessica Crouse,
Maui Coordinator

Aloha Maui County, PATCH has two new employees on Maui! Jessica Crouse is now the Maui Coordinator, and Tanya Ponce is the Resource and Referral Specialist. We are both excited to join an organization with such a strong commitment to our keiki and families. Feel free to call or drop by to say hello!

In celebration of PATCH's 40 years of outstanding service to the children of Hawaii, a Proclamation Ceremony was held in Maui County Mayor Alan Arakawa's office on August 11, 2016. Mayor Arakawa expressed his sincere support, stating "I urge all citizens to support this vital organization and its noble humanitarian mission." The Proclamation is now on display in our office.

Our team is thrilled to continue to support and participate in events in our community. In August, we attended the UH Cooperative Extension and Hi'i Na Kupuna Grandfamily Game Night and Back to School Celebration. In September, we joined several early childhood organizations at the 21st annual Stand for Children Celebration, hosted by Maui Family Support Services, Inc.

We invite you to join us at the following upcoming events:

Maui Children and Youth Day October 22, 2016,
Kenolio Recreation Complex, North Kihei, 4-8 pm

Let's Kokua Together December 16, 2016,
Queen Kaahumanu Center, 5-9 pm

We look forward to seeing you at our trainings and out and about in our community. If you have any questions about our trainings or would like to take advantage of our other services, please do not hesitate to drop by our office or call us at (808) 242-9232.

Want to build your keiki library? The Maui PATCH Office has "previously loved" books for sale – 2 books for $1.

Aloha. PATCH Kauai hosted a Provider Appreciation Breakfast Training on Sat. July 30, 2016 at the Kauai Beach Hotel. Providers enjoyed breakfast and listened to Kauai Easter Seals' Occupational Therapist Thao Tu speak about "Helping Children with Special Needs: A Practical Approach – Part II". This training was a follow up to the very successful and well attended February 2016 Provider Event where Thao also spoke. Lindsey Shepherd of Aptitude and Christina White from Bayada talked about early identification of children on the autism spectrum and the services their organizations provide. Presentations were very informative and helpful to all providers in attendance.

Our annual Cash for Caring was open to all prospective providers and licensed FCCs. We had 3 applicants this year and awards were handed out at the July 30th Provider Appreciation event. Look for the email in Spring 2017 for our next Cash for Caring contest.

PATCH Program Representative Natasha Perry presents Katerina Mateo with her check from Cash for Caring.

As you know, PATCH Kauai participated in the Visitor Industry Charity Walk on May 14th. The awards were announced on August 25th and we are very thankful to the Visitor Industry Charity Kauai team for their generous donation.

Kauai United Way came through again this year for PATCH Kauai with a grant to help pay for our Provider Appreciation Breakfast Trainings.

Invitations

The world-wide premier of the Birth of a Family documentary, produced by Kauai's own Mark Jeffers of Storybook Theater was enjoyed by over 100 Kauai residents on Sunday, Sept. 11, 2016. The film highlights the wonderful journey and important decisions a family undertakes to welcome its newest little member. The film features families, friends, and neighbors from Kauai and is available to be shown across the state. Contact Mary Lu at 246-0622 for more information.

Loretta, Marilyn, Dottie, Dale and Toni enjoy the breakfast at the Provider Appreciation event.

Share Family Meals Bringing Your 'Ohana Back to the Table: When is the last time your family shared a quality meal together? Did you know that simply eating together as a family 5 times per week has a powerful effect on your children? PATCH, Keiki to Career and other partners are excited to spread the word about the benefits of sharing family meals:

- MORE success in school, including better grades and better vocabulary
- MORE feelings of safety and well-being
- LESS risky behaviors, such as smoking, drinking, and drug use; less depression
- BETTER health: more nutritious food, reduces obesity, less eating disorders
- STRONGER family relationships, better well-being of all family members.

Bringing your 'ohana together for quality mealtime can be easy. Just remember to turn off the TV and cell phones and don't use meals as a time to criticize or discipline your children. Get some good conversation going with talk-story questions like these:

- ⇒ What was the funniest thing that happened today?
- ⇒ If you found $50, what would you do with it?
- ⇒ If you could help one person today, who would it be?
- ⇒ What do you like most about our family?

Aloha Hawaii Island,

We are very happy to announce that East Hawaii, who has been without a Career Counselor since January, has welcomed back a former employee! Jowett Chew-Marumoto, who tirelessly continued on as a Trainer even after she left her position at PATCH back in January has returned to our PATCH Family and moved seamlessly into her role as Career Counselor. If anyone is in need of professional development, guidance and/or advice in choosing a career path, Jowett is looking forward to working with you and helping you to achieve your goals. She can be reached in the evenings at (808) 238-3465 or at jchewmarumoto@patch-hi.org.

A very big Mahalo to PATCH Staff (Leilani is pictured above) who braved the weather and participated in this year's Convoy of Hope at the Civic. This outreach event was attended by over 5,000 people in the community with an unprecedented 1,100 volunteers from various churches, agencies and organizations. PATCH staff spoke directly to over 200 families to discuss PATCH services and was able to determine that at least 79 families had children that were age eligible for the Preschool Open Doors Scholarship (POD) this school year (2016-2017) and next school year (2017-2018). This was one of the most successful outreach events that East Hawaii PATCH has attended and staff look to the future and hope the next outreach event we attend can be just as successful.
